

Memorial of Daniel Bread to Commissioner of Indians Affairs. Praying payment of his claim as delegate, of Oneida Indians of Green Bay, to Washington in 1831-32.

I have been personally acquainted with Daniel Bread, a Chief of the Oneida Nation, for twenty years part he having resided in my immediate vicinity during this time. He is a man of excellent character, honest and upright, and his statements are entitled to credit upon any subject whether he is interested or not upon which he reports he informed. I do not know a better man in the country in which he lives.

James Duane Doty

A.R. February 28th 1851

I am acquainted with Daniel Bread, whole name is signed to the foregoing Memorial. He is an enterprising and influential Chief of his Tribe, and was highly instrumental in their removal from the State of New York to their present location in Wisconsin. I agree with the Honorable James D. Doty in opinion, as to the excellence of his character, and believe the statements of the memorialists entitled to free credit.

Washington March 13th 1851

Solomon Davis
Late Missionary to the Oneidas, in Wisconsin.

Memorial of
 A. J. Brewster

March 13th 1851
 to the Indian Affairs

Praying payment of his claim as delegate of Onondaga Indians of Green Bay, to Washington in 1831-2.

I have been personally acquainted with Daniel Brad, a chief of the Ojibwa Nation, for twenty years past—he having resided in my immense vicinity during this time. He is a man of excellent character, honest and upright, and his statements are entitled to credit upon any subject—whether he is interested or not—upon which he speaks to the witness.
 I do not know a better man in the country in which he lives—

James Dean Doty

St. R. Feb. 25. 1837

I am acquainted with Daniel Brad
 whose name is signed to the foregoing Memorial. He is an Ojibwa, and the liver -

James Bevan Esq

W. R. G. P. 25. 1857

I am acquainted with Daniel Brad
whose name is signed to the foregoing Memorial. He is an enterprising and influential chief of business, and was highly instrumental in their removal from the State of New York to their present location in Wisconsin. I agree with the Hon.
James S. Doty, in opinion, as to the excellence of his character, and believe the statement of the Memorialist entitled to true credit.

Washington March 18, 1851. John W. Davis. late Major to the Drives, in Wisconsin