ter of said city, shall have power within said city to make, establish, publish, modify and repeal rules, ordinances and by-laws for the following purposes:

1. To prohibit the refining, clarifying, distillation or manufacture of kerosene oil within said city.

2. To prohibit fat-boiling, soap-boiling and bone-boiling within the city limits, and to prescribe limits within which fat-boiling and bone-boiling shall be prohibited.

3. To prohibit the sale of goods and merchandise, or the performance of work or labor for hire on Sunday, by all persons except such as observe the seventh day of the week as a day of religious worship, instead of the first day of the week.

§ 2. Each assessor of the city of Poughkeepsie shall receive for compensation, for all services to be rendered under the charter of the said city, or by virtue of any statute of the State, an annual salary to be fixed by the common council, not to exceed three hundred dollars.

§ 3. Section two of title six of an act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to incorporate the city of Poughkeepsie,' passed March twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four," passed May first, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

§ 2. Whenever the common council shall order a sidewalk to be made, altered or repaired, or curbs to be set, or sags to be made, paved or guttered, they shall ascertain the expense of such improvement, and shall enter the amount thereof in the minutes of their proceedings, and shall then assess the same upon the real estate along or in front of which such walk is ordered to be made, altered or repaired, or such curb to be set, or sag to be made, paved or guttered. They shall in such assessment briefly describe each parcel of real estate, in respect to which any such assessment is made, and the amount assessed upon each parcel: and shall thereupon cause a notice to be published in a public newspaper printed in said city, that such assessment has been made and filed; and that the common council will meet at a time to be named in said notice, not less than ten days after the first publication thereof, to hear any objections which may be made to such assessments; and in the mean time the said assessments shall remain on file in the chamberlain's office, and may be examined without expense by any person desiring to examine the same. Land commissioners, to determine the rights of Indians to lands under treaties.

They make further treaty stipulations and report same to Legislature.

SECTION 1. The Commissioners of the Land Office of this State are hereby authorized and required to examine and determine the rights and equities, if any exist, of the Oneida tribe of Indians, in and to certain lands in this State, reserved to them under the treaties of September twenty-second, seventeen hundred and eighty-eight, and September fifteen, seventeen hundred and ninety-five, respectively.

§ 2. That if said Commissioners, upon such examination, shall find that said tribe of Indians have any reserved rights under said two treaties mentioned in the first section of this act, which have not been sold or disposed of according to said treaties and the stipulations therein contained, or otherwise conveyed, the Commissioners aforesaid are hereby authorized and required to make such further treaty stipulations with said Indians as shall be just and equitable, and report the same to the Legislature for confirmation.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
