

DIARY OF CAPT. JOHN ARCHIQUETTE

SHEET TWO

Oneida, Wisconsin, April 12, 1882.
Hon. O. Ferguson, U.S. Pension Agent,
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Sir:

Your favor of the 3rd, inst. concerning Mrs. Meary Hill, widow of Joseph Hill, is received.
In answer I will state the facts--
Mrs. Meary Hill, said widow of Joseph, has been and is now living with Wm. Summers as her husband. Said Wm. Summers is the husband of Christine Summers.

Yours respectfully,
John Otariquette
Lieut. of U.S. Ind. Police
P 29 1856 who died

Duck Creek--Green Bay (meaning Oneida Reservation)
Chief Daniel Bread's wife, who was a Mohawk, died Nov. 1st.
Daughter of Daniel Bread died Nov. 8th.
My father's Diary dates back to 1841 and includes dates through 1870. This book has a stamp on it, and a picture of W.D.C. on it.
