

23324

Hurdol & Wignam
Green Bay, Wis
Oct. 3. 1885,

Rel. to matters concerning Onidas, called citizen regarding this land
cc.

Ans. Oct. 13/85
1885/82

$14/20
Allen

T. R. HUDD,

J. M. WIGMAN.

LAW OFFICES

OF

HUDD & WIGMAN,

Washington St., Opposite Cook's Hotel.

23324

Green Bay, Wis. Oct 3d 1885

To the Commissioner of Indian Affairs
Washington D.C.
Hon. Sir -

We are requested by a delegation of the Oneidas claiming to represent the so-called Citizen part of that tribe of Indians to communicate with your department in relation to the subject of some action at the approaching session of Congress in relation to the settlement of the vested question of an allotment of the lands

T. R. HUDD,

J. H. M. WIGMAN.

LAW OFFICES

2

23324

OF

HUDD & WIGMAN,

Washington St., Opposite Cook's Hotel.

Green Bay, Wis.

1888

of the Reservation near Chippewa - once looking to the ending of their tribal relations to the Government - and their becoming Citizens of the U.S. It is represented to us that - now at least - two thirds of the tribe desire to have the lands divided among the Ojibwas entitled to live on the Reservation under the Treaty of 1838 making some 65 acres per capita. What course can the department suggest for the wants of the U.S.? We may add that the people of this part of

T. R. HUDD,

M. W. WIGMAN.

LAW OFFICES

OF

HUDD & WIGMAN,

Washington St., Opposite Cook's Hotel.

3

23324

Green Bay, Wis.

1888

Wisconsin are deeply interested in the settlement of this question. We desire to know for these Indians what step they can take under the approval of your department in the premises? for without such approval and aid we say to them it will be hopeless to attempt legislation. An early reply is requested.

Respectfully

Hudd & Wigman