Dear Mr. Cavill:

Reference is made to Acting Superintendent Miller's letter of February 20, 1949, with which he submitted a copy of a resolution passed by the Oneida Tribal Council on February 20, 1949, delegating to the Executive Committee the powers exercised by the General Council in Article IV of the Oneida constitution. The Executive Committee is composed of the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer, of the General Council.

This delegation of authority appears to be a proper action of the General Council and requires no further action by this Office or by the Department. Such delegation of power does not preclude the General Council from exercising the powers contained in Article VI. The Executive Committee may exercise the powers delegated to it until the General Council rescinds the action. Any action of the Executive Committee is subject to review by the General Council.

Sincerely yours,
