Dear Mr. Bennett:

We have sent you with the compliments of the author, Mrs. Hazel Hertzberg, a copy of her new book, Great Tree and the Longhouse: A Culture of the Iroquois, and the Teacher's Guide to accompany it.

Edw.

We are very proud to have these very fine books on our list.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Miss Arnof:

I wish to apologize for the delay in acknowledging the receipt of GREAT TREE and THE LONGHOUSE, a Culture of the Iroquois, and the TEACHER'S GUIDE, which you sent me with the compliments of the author, Mrs. Hazel Hertzberg. While I received the letter the other material just found its way to my desk recently.

I appreciate very much the kindness of yourself and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Hertzberg in furnishing the book and material to me. As a member of the Oneida Tribe, which was a part of the Iroquois Confederacy, the book is of a great deal of personal interest to me.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

(Sgt) Robert L. Bennett
