June 14, 1926

Letter from A.E. School, Asst Supt. Indian Field Service, Keshena to Commissioner of Ind. Affairs, Wash., D.C., in regards to checks received protesting against the sale of the Oneida School property.

The checks were sent by Mr. Sam Bell, formerly financial clerk in charge of the Oneida Sub-Agency. dated April 24, 1924.

Protests involved; Contending that the property was illegally sold.

In a Gen. Council held at Oneida right after the checks had been issued the people made another protest against the method of the Indian Bureau in disposing of property.

Annuity money and the Government School sale money were mixed.

Many of the Oneida do not read.

Stating that the undersigned vehemently protest against such unfair methods being foisted over the people.
