

AP Loserphoto

De Rossi,
st Tom Pierce
f the monitor-
his summer.

Valk'

es cast. There are still seats. Menominees feel a be made in that es with Bruce Kabacinski, 19, 827
st. Ave.

The central Bay is already a non-ment area for suspended particulates, Raison said.
The area affected is north of Mason Street, west of Webster Avenue, and east of an irregular line between Ashland and Military Avenues.
In SO-2 pollution, only one area in Wisconsin is classified

8-78

Police

A small safe was stolen Friday from the home of Clayton Detrie, 3404 Humboldt Road.
The safe contained two certificates of savings and a coin collection valued at $500.

Kerry Funmaker, 1215 S.
Chestnut Ave., was treated and released from St. Vincent Hospital Sunday after accident-tally shooting himself early Saturday. Funmaker and a friend were target shooting with a .22 caliber rifle near the Wisconsin State Reformatory Honor Farm near Oneida. The weapon discharged while Funmaker was unloading it.

Ronda Campbell, 20, 308
S. Locust St., was listed today in good condition at St. Vincent Hospital with minor back injuries she received when the car she was riding in rolled off the Quincy Street on-ramp to the Tilleman Bridge. The accident occurred at 1:01 a.m. Sunday when the car drive by Bruce Kabacinski, 19, 827
st. Ave.