

Sunday Classified

To place a Press-Gazette Want Ad, get extra fast service by dialing direct to a classified advisor.

Press-Gazette Photo by Ken Benrend

The Oneida Nation Museum was dedicated and officially opened during ceremonies Saturday. A social dance, entitled the Round Dance (pictured above), was performed by a group of Oneida dancers at the ceremony. At right, 9-year-old Matt Cornelius, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Cornelius of Oneida, waits for the dance to begin. The museum building is pictured upper right behind the dancers.

Museum Dedicated

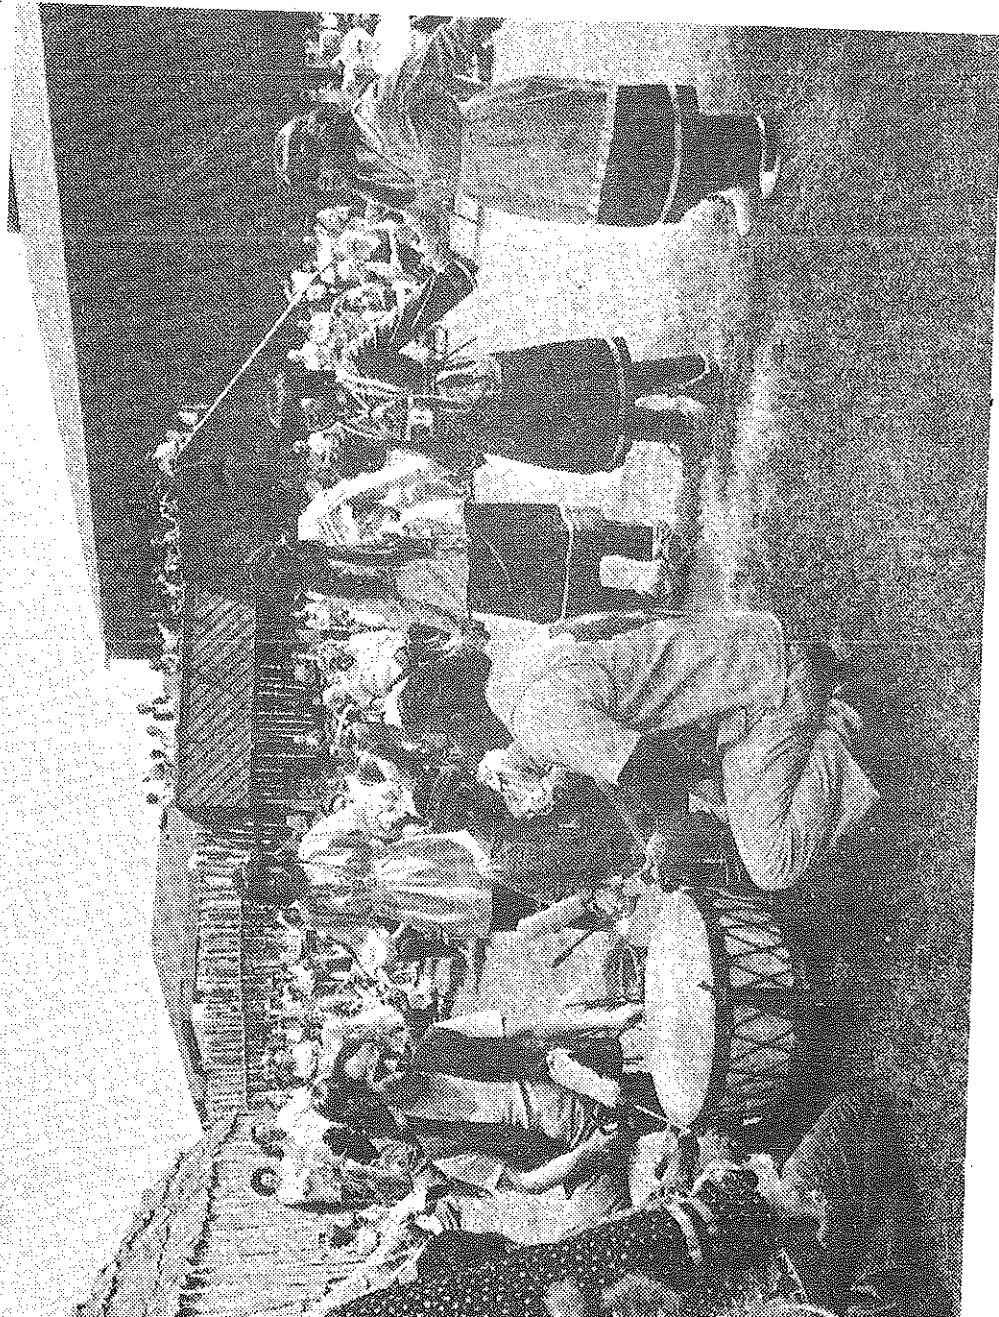

SUNDAY, JUNE 24, 1979

Classified

Section E

To place a Press-Gazette Want Ad, get extra fast service by dialing direct to a classified advisor.

435-8361

Press-Gazette Photo by Ken Behrend

The Oneida Nation Museum was dedicated and officially opened during ceremonies Saturday. A social dance, entitled the Round Dance (pictured above), was performed by a group of Oneida dancers at the ceremony. At right, 9-year-old Matt Corneilus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Corneilus of Oneida, waits for the dance to begin. The museum building is pictured upper right behind the dancers.

