

WANDA LEE WEBSTER

Wanda Lee Webster has served as <sup>the</sup> Oneida Business Committee secretary from 1979 to 1981. A lifelong resident of Oneida, she <sup>also</sup> has worked for the tribe in numerous positions since 1971.

Webster, 44; currently works as the contract health coordinator for the Oneida Health Center. She and her husband, (name), have been married for (how long) years. They have (any) children.

Webster was born July 15, 1945, in (where) to (parents). She graduated from Seymour High School in 1964. She attended the Northeast Wisconsin Techniaal College in Green Bay and the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay.

★ What other jobs for tribe did she hold?
She does volunteer work? What kind? for whom?

ONEIDA BUSINESS COMMITTEE
BIOGRAPHY FOREMAT
For use with Honor Ceremony - Oneida History Conference II

---

Correct full name:

Wanda Lee Webster

Nickname(s) [if any]:

Date of birth:

7-15-45

7/15/45

Date of death (if applicapable):

Business Committee offices held (and dates of each):

Tribal Secretary Sept. 19 ~~1979~~ to 1981

Occupation(s): Worked for the tribe since 9/1/71 in various positions
Currently - Contract Health Coordinator at O.H.C.

Period(s) of residency on reservation (area):

---

All my life

Education and school(s): Seymour High - 1964 graduate
Nute - Clerk-Typist Course
UWGB

Religious affiliation: All other courses offered by tribe

Oneida Methodist Church

Activities and interests:

Bowling, Volunteer work, Bingo.

Notable accomplishments:

First Tribal Secretary to get a  $\frac{1}{2}$  time helper.

Honors and recognitions:

Other pertinent information (be brief):