Kalihwisaks is the official newsletter of the Oneida Nation of Wisconsin. Published since 1973, it is circulated as a non-profit service to enrolled tribal members on a monthly schedule. Correspondence should be sent to Kalihwisaks, Oneida Nation of Wisconsin, P.O. Box 365, Oneida, WI 54155. Editor: Barbara Webster; Reporter/Photographer: Virginia Lovell.

ONEIDA ENVIRONMENTAL TECHNOLOGY CENTER

Oneida, WI-Ribbon-cutting ceremonies for the Oneida Environmental Technology Center (ORTEK) took place last week at the company's new facility. The new location is adjacent to the Oneida Industrial Park on West Mason street in Green Bay.

The ceremony was opened by a tobacco offering and prayers by Amos Christjohn, Oneida. Wayne Skenandore, Chairman of the Board of ORTEK conducted the brief ceremonies which included, Purcell Powless, Oneida Tribal Chairman, Steve Van Dyke, Foth & Van Dyke, David Powless, President, Jerry M. Hill, Manager of Oneida Tribal Economic Development, and Skenandore cutting the ribbon to the ORTEK laboratory. Jr. Miss Oneida, Denise Donley was also assisting in the ceremony.

Due to inclement weather in Chicago last Sunday, the two expected dignitaries from the office of Administration of Native American programs (ANA) were unable to attend. William Lynn Engles, and Sydney Olsen. Engles is being considered by the Bush Administration for a position to replace Ross Swimmer.

ANA was instrumental in assisting ORTEK in obtaining the starting grants necessary to get the laboratory underway.

ORTEK is an environmental laboratory designed to perform analytical testing services for air, waters, and soils. ORTEK also provides education, training and employment for students of science and technology. Presently, ORTEK employs 22 individuals, 7 of which are Oneida Tribal members.

L-R Larry Barton, Business Committee, Charlene Cornelius, (Unidentified lady with back facing), Bob Lobo, Radisson Manager, and Janice Hirth tour the laboratory where the city of Green Bay came to have their water analyzed to assure the purity when some Green Bay water lines burst late last fall.

Gloria Doxtator, Laboratory Assistant, sanitizes some vessels in the lab. Doxtator is one of 7 Oneidas employed by ORTEK.

National Indian School Board Association (NISBA) Conference

NISBA completed a four day conference from February 5 to February 8, at the Radisson Inn. The intent of the training is to orientate new board members, keep all board members updated on policy changes from the national level, and keep them abreast of educational trends in order to carry out their diverse responsibilities as policy makers.

One of the highest priorities of NISBA is getting more students through the school system with better grades.

The reason for this conference was to:

1. Promote quality education.
2. Plan and implement goals in Education.
3. Become stronger advocates for Indian Education.
4. Equal opportunity in school systems.
5. Promote understanding of our culture in school system.
6. Lobby for Indian Education rights and funds.
7. Generate positive attitude towards education.

Board members realize that they must become spokesmen for parents and students. As board members they will influence the quality of education our children receive, and serve as promoters of respect for Indian parents. They must also be the role model for parents and students.

The NISBA conference began with an overview of public law which impact the operation of BIA funded schools. Howard Rainer, next gave a workshop on the importance of a positive mental attitude. Howard taught that we must work with our children in a positive manner, and we need to show we care. Other workshops included an emphasis on community involvement and elements of effective school research.

Although boards were in existence in many of the tribal contract schools and boards which were "advisory" in nature were also present in many BIA-operated schools, it was not the passage of Public Law 95-561 that Indian input through school boards became a requirement. NISBA which is located in Fort Worth, Texas gained the contract of training school boards in 1987.

According to the Fiscal Year 1989 Department of the Interior, BIA Budget Justification, during 1988 there were 182 BIA-funded schools serving approximately 39,100 Indian students.

Speakers included: Rick Albers, Beverly Bancroft, Roger Bordeaux, Howard Rainer, Carmen Cornelius Taylor, Betty Walker, and Leona Zastrow.

Howard Rainer: Giving Workshop at the NISBA Conference.

Dinosaurs and Turtles Seen by Tens of Thousands

The world class, blockbuster exhibits at the Neville Public Museum in Green Bay are being seen by tens of thousands of people since opening to the public February 4th. "Dinosaurs Rediscovered" and the "Oneida Turtle Clan" exhibits played to more than 10,000 visitors the first weekend.

The Oneida Tribe Of Indians was the first announced sponsor of the exhibits. "We wanted to be part of the effort because it will expose a portion of our culture to thousands of non-Indian people," Amelia Cornelius, tribal secretary said.

"Our experience in sponsoring "Wolves and Humans" proved this was a good way to get our message out. When the Neville announced it was bringing in an exhibit on dinosaurs, some of us went to the Milwaukee Museum to see if it would be worthwhile," she said.

"The crowds prove we were right," Cornelius added.

The Oneida Turtle Clan exhibit features the "Creation Story," the story of the "Turtle's War Party" and a display of cornhusk dolls. It was designed by Mary LeMieux, assistant director of the Oneida Nation Museum.

Museum Director Ken Metoxen and his wife Linda Lou helped in the preparation of the exhibit, with Linda Lou doing most of the sculpting of the "Creation Story" display. Mary wrote the copy and did all of the paintings.

Oneida docents (guides) who manned the exhibits the first weekend said crowd reaction was "extremely good." Kevin Cornelius said he talked to one man who had taken his child in when the doors opened Saturday. At 12:30 in the afternoon, he was still there because his son did not want to leave.

Keith Skenadore, who worked the "Turtle Clan" exhibit on Sunday, said he had many favorable comments from the visitors, some as far away as the Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

Keith said several expressed the desire to visit the Oneida Nation Museum after seeing the "Turtle Clan" exhibit.

L-R: Mary LeMieux, assistant museum director, Judi Jourdan, museum board member, and Richard Cornelius discussing that dinosaurs need to brush daily and see a dentist.

Norris Skenadore received special recognition by Ann Koski, Neville Museum Director for his efforts in helping to procure more than $3,500 in donations for the dinosaurs. Norris put the pitch for ten grand to a customer in his barber chair, kind of a "Close shave".

L-R: Ned Heiss, Janice Skenandore Hirth and David Webster enjoyed meeting the "Tyrannosaurus Rex", one of the animated dinamation dinosaurs that are featured at the Neville.

Tom Porter Sub-Chief Bear Clan Mohawk Nation

Tom Porter a 44 year old Mohawk from Akwesasne, New York was invited to Oneida for a week by Oneida Tribal School and Oneida Headstart. Tom told stories and talked to the children, and parents, and the teachers about Iroquoian beliefs and language.

Tom Porter speaks the Mohawk language fluently. Raised by his grandmother who only spoke Mohawk, was reinforced and influenced by her courage to stand up for the language and to be proud of his culture. He talked of when he was forced to go to school to learn English and to forget the Mohawk language and culture, if he retaliated he was punished. Tom Porter comments about school where, "My language was no good, they wanted me to speak English." "My social songs were no good, they wanted me to sing Yankee doodle." "My culture was no good they wanted me to celebrate their holidays." "So than I felt like I was no good."

THE WEEK ENDED WITH SOCIAL DANCING. ABOVE TOM PORTER LEADING SHIRLEY BARBER.

Tom pleads to teachers "use your heart and your kindness when teaching." He spoke of the Mohawk total immersion school in Akwesasne and the language classes they offer for the parents and also their radio station is total immersion. Tom was director of their Freedom School for 2 years, and sometimes a ironworker, carpenter, and a teacher. When he returns home to his wife Alice and four children, he will be starting a counseling program.

CONCERNED TEACHERS AND PARENTS LISTEND TO TOM PORTER

Here are somethings that Tom talked about and would like us to remember. "When the creator made the nations, he gave us our language, our culture and our beliefs and the ceremonies, the Creator did that on purpose it was not a mistake. If we are to deny our language and allow it to die, then our world will end our piece of mind will end and than our world will end, than there will be only sadness, broken families, hunger, frustration and pain.

Germany Trip Meetings

We have held two community meetings on developing a group of approximately 50 Oneida community members to attend a week of activities in Germany in September, 1989. The time is coming upon us quickly. We need artists and their work, dancers, a Drum, crafts people, and possible cooks. We need to finalize our group by the end of February. All the people intending to go need to work on several fund raisers planned for the remainder of time between now and September. The ground rules are that individuals must plan to use their vacation time, have their own spending money, and be willing to help out wherever needed while in Germany. We have scheduled meetings for Saturday, February 18, 1989 at 1:00 p.m. in the Corvillia room on Tuesday, February 21, 1989 at 7:00 P.M. in the Business Committee Conference room, both at the Norbert Hill Center. If you have any questions please contact me at (414) 869-1260 or (414) 869-1314, or contact Gordon McLester at (414) 869-1183. It is important that we get commitments by the end of February. Hope to see you at both meetings if possible.

NOTICE

The Oneida Tribe has entered into a Design/Build Contract for an 11,500 square foot expansion of the Irene Moore Activity Center. The prime contractors of the project have agreed to exercise preference to qualified Oneida construction workers and sub-contractors.

Those interested in working on the project should contact the prime contractors directly. The primes are: Calmes Construction 621-3350 (a local call) VOS Electric 336-0781, Recke-Marold (HVAC) 435-5377 and Oneida Plumbing 869-2214. Recke-Marold, the heating contractor is the only contractor with a labor union contract to uphold although their sheet metal sub-contractor is a non-union shop. The Tribal contact officer is Planning Director, Carl Rasmussen, 869-2214.

NOTICE NOTICE NOTICE

All Renters & Homebuyers in OHA Projects

Please remove all vehicles that are parked on the streets, keep your vehicle parked in your driveway.

During the winter months cars parked on the streets make snow-plowing very difficult.

Oneida Housing has been asked to cooperate with the town and county street and highway departments in enforcing keeping the streets clear of parked cars.

We will take action to have cars towed away at the owners expense if they are parked on the curbside for any period of time.

Thank you ahead of time for cooperation.

The world is in a state of great confusion. The priorities of people in general are not right, and if the priorities of the world are not fixed, the ultimate destruction of the world is inevitable. In our search for material things the great waters of the world has been polluted, the air has been polluted, and the mother earth has been polluted.

Without these resources how long can we live, how long can we go without a drink of water. We won't be able to eat the money in the banks.

LEFT TO RIGHT: JOHN SKENADORE, TOM PORTER, CODY KING, SCOTT BRAAT, CLINT MALONE

Tom encourages people to stay away from alcohol and drugs and things that alter your mind from a natural state. He asks for the children to respect their parents and their grandparents and their uncles and their aunts and vice versa.

TOM PORTER TALKING WITH HEADSTART AND TRIBAL TEACHER

The results of Tom's visit here were enriching to all that were able to hear him. Oneida Headstart teachers comments were that the children's reaction to Tom were: Magical, curious, warm and affectionate. The children sensed he wanted to be their friend. They knew he had good words to tell them. It was like some-how we knew he was our brother from the East. Our Headstart staff was again reminded about how important the language and culture is to our future leaders, the children. Tom showed us that his stories didn't need any extra props but that his stories were told from the heart and with sincerity. Each one of us was enriched with the message that he gave us as a gift.

TOM PORTER TALKING WITH ORTEK STAFF

Tom was also able to visit other tribal enterprises. He lost at bingo, but had a good time. David Powless invited Tom to tour the ORTEK facilities. Tom was very impressed and gave words of encouragement to all the employees about how important their job is to the community and the future of their children to have clean air, water, and soil. ORTEK conducts research and development projects directed at environmental improvement.

Tom was impressed with the Oneida's of Wisconsin for their ownership of their enterprises and that the money goes back into the community to help serve the people.

NATIONAL INDIAN NEWS

Indian Activist Is Staying At Fort Hall Reservation

(FORT HALL INDIAN RESERVATION) - Indian activist Eddie Hatcher stayed at the Fort Hall Indian Reservation and did not appear for arraignment in Robeson County on Jan. 19 in North Carolina to face 14 charges of second-degree kidnapping.

Judge Anthony Brannon said Hatcher faced forfeiture of a $25,000 bond, posted by the National Council of Churches, and additional charges, if he failed to appear in court.

Hatcher appeared on Jan. 9 before the Shoshone-Bannock Tribal Court at Fort Hall, and said he was living on the reservation.

Hatcher informed the court that he had charges pending against him in North Carolina in connection with the seizure of The Robesonian newspaper in February of 1988. Hatcher said he fears for his life if he is returned to North Carolina, and he would seek asylum at Fort Hall if North Carolina requested his extradition.

Bob Gonzales, Administrator of the Shoshone-Bannock Tribal Court, said the court has not yet received a formal request from North Carolina for Hatcher's extradition.

Hatcher and another Indian activist, Timothy Jacobs, said they seized The Robesonian newspaper in February, and took hostages to draw national attention to alleged law enforcement corruption and drug trafficking in Robeson County.

Jacobs, who has been living at the Onondaga Indian Reservation, in New York state, is set for a February 28 hearing on an order signed by Governor Cuomo to extradite him back to North Carolina.

Both defendants were acquitted by a federal jury of hostage taking and weapons charges in connection with the incident by a federal jury, but on October 14 the state brought kidnapping charges against them.

Before Hatcher can receive sanctuary at Fort Hall, he will have to prove among other things, that he could not receive a fair trial in North Carolina, Gonzalez said.

Assistant Secretary For Indian Affairs Ross Swimmer Resigns

(WASHINGTON, DC) - The Department of the Interior announced the resignation of Ross Swimmer, Assistant Secretary for Indian Affairs. Last November he tendered his resignation to then President Reagan and in a recent letter to Secretary Don Hodel made it official as of January 29th.

"I believe we have moved the agenda forward for a real change in Indian Country," he wrote Hodel. "Certainly, there is a new awareness of what the problems are and the solutions to those problems. This is a convenient time for me to leave and rejoin my family in Tulsa, (Oklahoma)," he said.

Hodel recently awarded Swimmer and the Department's highest citation and gold medal for his "invaluable counsel and leadership in support of this Nation's government-to-government relationship with Native Americans." In presenting the Outstanding Service Award, Hodel said: "His unswerving faith in the inherent abilities and talents of Native Americans has resulted in policies that provide Indians with the opportunity to truly control their own destinies."

Hodel called special attention to Swimmer's initiatives to improve education and economic development on Indian lands, and his efforts to increase tribal control over federal funding provided to their governments. The citation also notes that Swimmer initiated a much-improved program for administering Indian trust funds that "will ensure the maximum return and flexibility to the trustees and provide the highest caliber of investment advice."

Earl Gjelde, acting Secretary of the Interior, has named William P. Ragsdale, currently Deputy to the Assistant Secretary (Operations), to serve as acting Assistant Secretary until a new Assistant Secretary has been nominated by President Bush and confirmed by the U.S. Senate.

Swimmer, 45, a former principal chief of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma, has been Assistant Secretary since December 5, 1985.

Hearing On Pawnee Skeletal Remains Is Held

(LINCOLN, NE) - The Pawnee Indian tribe would probably win a judgement against the state Historical Society if the tribe goes to court to obtain the Indian skeletal remains the society currently holds, a Nebraska official told a state committee on January 25.

"My opinion is if this matter is some way not amicably settled, then I think we will see lengthy litigation," Nebraska Attorney General Robert Spire told the Legislature's Government, Military and Veterans Affairs Committee on LB340. "When all the legal dust settles I think the court will determine the Indian first amendment rights will prevail over the rights of the scientific community."

LB340, sponsored by Senator Ernest Chambers of Omaha, adopts the Unmarked Human Burial Sites and skeletal Remains Protection Act, and would require the society to return the remains to the tribe for reburial beginning September 10.

Party Chairman Tom Monaghan told a news conference before the hearing that he supports the bill, because it addresses an important human rights issue.

The Pawnee Indian tribe's attempt to gain custody of the skeletal remains of their ancestors have been unsuccessful, and the society has maintained the position that the remains should be used for scientific research instead of reburied.

Bob Peregoy, staff attorney with the Native American Rights Fund in Boulder, Colorado, said Pawnee tribe members believe they have not been given fair treatment, and they will go to court if necessary to obtain satisfaction.

Senator Loran Schmit of Bellwood said he stands behind the Pawnees on the skeletal remains issue.

"Native American people of Nebraska certainly ought not to have to beg for the decent burial of their ancestors remains," Schmit said.

Indian Reservation Beaches Feel Effects Of Oil Spill

(OLYMPIA, WA) - Six locations on beaches within the Quianault Indian Reservation, with Olympic park and the Makah Indian Reservation accounting for nine problem areas were affected by light concentrations of oil from the barge spill last month in the Ocean shores area.

The barge was ruptured when it collided with its tug December 23 in heavy seas off Ocean shores.

Several beaches were affected by: a heavy coat of oil in the Ocean Shores area for 3 miles north of the entrance of Grays Harbor, and a heavy concentration also occurred for more than 2 miles near Toileak Point and Third Beach in the Olympic National Park since the spill.

Oil has also reportedly been washed to the shores of some of British Columbia's islands.

Lew Kittle of the State Department of Ecology, who is coordinating the agency's clean-up of the spill, said the Coast Guard had wanted to send the Barge Nestucca into Gray Harbor for emergency repairs after it was struck by the tug, but he recommended against that action.

Subsequently, the barge was towed 28 miles out to sea where most of the estimated 213,000 gallon oil spill occurred.

The large area of the ocean, with its strong tidal swings, would better handle the after-effects of the spill better than the oyster beds, wildlife habitat, and more moderate tidal movement of Grays Harbor, said Kittle.

However, approximately 8,000 ocean birds have suffered from the spill, of which 5,000 have died, said State Ecology Director Christene Gregoire.

New Snowmobile - Nature Trails Developed

The Park and Wildlife crew have developed two snowmobile/nature trails. The first trail is located by Site II Housing Site with 2.2 miles of trail. The main trail starts on Ranch Road and continues through wooded areas and ends on Fish Creek Road. Two other trails branch off the main trail. One branch goes through Rolling Hills Park on Van Boxtel Road and the other branch goes near the treatment plant by Site II and back to the main trail.

The second trail is located on the corner of County "J" and Overland Road, which is the old M.R.K. quarry. This trail is 1.1 miles long and runs along Duck Creek into a wooded area and back to Overland Road.

The quarry site has a 5.5 acre lake which was transplanted with 5,500 species of fish. Those species are largemouth and smallmouth bass, walleye fingerling, and bluegills. The possibility of perch being stocked in the lake could occur this spring.

Fishing will be open to the elderly, handicapped and youth 16 years of age and under. The fishing season will open in May, 1991.

There will also be a playground/picnic area developed at the site with benches, shelters, and information signs along each trail.

The parks crew, Charles Skenandore and Terry Metoxen, started the trails in November, 1988. With the assistance of Joslin Skenandore, the trails were finished January 20, 1989.

Thanks to the park crew for a job well done. Keep up the good work!!!

IF YOU ASK ME...

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE ONEIDA TRIBE SPONSORING THE "BLOCKBUSTER" DINOSAUR AND TURTLE CLAN EXHIBIT AT THE NEVILLE PUBLIC MUSEUM?

Floyd Metoxen... I think it is great. I haven't had a chance to see the exhibit but I plan on going real soon. This exhibit is good for the relationship between Oneida and Green Bay.

Ana Alicea... I think it educates the Indians and non-Indians about our heritage. The Headstart children enjoyed the exhibit. It gives them something to be proud of because the tribe was part of it.

Nick Metoxen... I think it is a good idea. I saw the "Wolves & Humans" exhibit and I plan on seeing this one.

Andrew John... I think it is super! Being a member of the Oneida Museum Board, I think this gives the Oneida Museum good exposure.

SEYMOUR INDIAN PARENT GROUP

At the December Seymour Indian Parent Group meeting, there was a total of 106 people in attendance. The meeting began with a potluck meal and a fellowship.

In attendance was Dr. William Loasching, Superintendent of Seymour Schools. He spoke to the group on the importance of attendance, honors and giving a positive attitude for the students.

Dr. Loasching and Amelia Cornelius, Oneida Tribal Secretary, presented fifty-six students who had perfect attendance for the first quarter a Indian head nickel as an award. The Tribe was instrumental in the purchasing of these coins that dated back to 1935 or 1936.

The Parents Group presented pens to the two high school students for their achievement of High Honors and those students who received honors for the first quarter. The Parents Group is in support of all its students as they strive for academic success.

Thelma McLester, the new Education and Training Manager for the Oneida Tribe, presented Dr. Loasching "The Oneida Experience" book, the latest edition of the Tribe.

The group was also introduced to the new tutor, Debbie Johnson, a parent from the Freedom district. Debbie is receiving training for tutoring under the Title IV program teacher. This position was created through a cooperative effort between the Tribe and Seymour schools at the parents concern for extra support for their students academic studies in the elementary school.

Grace Koehler, Chairperson for the Seymour Indian Parent Group, presented a gift to Karen Gaston, Title IV teacher/tutor, for all the motivation and academic support she has given to the parents and students these past ten years. Grace also presented Dr. Loasching a tribal poster along with the small poster explaining the Oneida Logo.

With parent support like this, Tribal interest, and school concern, our students have every reason to believe they can achieve at whatever future career they choose.

DRUG-FREE
WORKPLACE ACT OF 1988

A COMMUNITY MEETING will be held on MONDAY, MARCH 6, 1989 at 6:00 P.M. in the CORVILLA ROOM of the NORBERT HILL CENTER to discuss this law.

The Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 requires federal agency contractors and employers who receive federal grants to certify to the contracting agency that they will provide a drug-free workplace. The Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin is a federal agency contractor and/or recipient of federal grants. The following notice is hereby published in compliance with the provisions of the above Act. The Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin declares that the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of a controlled substance is prohibited on or about any Tribal facility used as a place of work that violations of this policy by employees will be dealt with according to duly adopted Tribal rules, regulations, policies, procedures and ordinances.

Each Tribal employee working under a federal contract and/or grant will be given a copy of this statement and will be required to sign a statement verifying receipt.

In addition, each Tribal employee working under a federal contract and/or grant is required by this Act to report any drug-related criminal conviction to the contractor (the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin's Human Resources Department) within five (5) days of the conviction. The Oneida Tribe is required by this Act to notify the contracting agency of an employee conviction within ten (10) days of learning about the conviction. Failure to comply with these provisions will result in the immediate termination without appeal of the employee and could subject the Oneida Tribe to loss of the contract and/or grant.

Further, this Act requires the Oneida Tribe to establish a drug-free awareness program to inform employees of 1) the danger's of drug abuse in the workplace 2) the Tribe's Policy of maintaining a drug-free workplace; 3) the availability of drug counseling, rehabilitation, and employee assistance programs; and 4) the penalties that will be imposed on employees for drug abuse violations. This requirement will be met through the Oneida Tribe's Employee Assistance Program, through the efforts of the Human Resource Department, and through supervisor-staff meetings with affected employees.

Smithsonian Will Select 40
Interns From High School Class of 1989

The Smithsonian Institution is offering five-week internships to 40 students. Seniors may apply for positions in various departments and offices in the Institution, in areas including archaeology, biology, journalism, photography, history, veterinary science, art, carpentry, library science, and computer science.

Students chosen for the program will receive a living allowance of $550.00. In addition to their duties as interns, the students will tour sites that many visitors of Washington, D.C. do not see, such as the Organization of American States and the World Bank. As part of the program, the interns will hold seminars to explain to the group both their assignments and the functions of the host office.

Acceptance is based not as much on academic achievement as on a demonstrated interest in a particular subject area or career.

Interns who come from outside the Washington area will receive housing in a nearby dormitory. The Institution will also provide their transportation to and from Washington. Intern '89 will offer two separate sessions of the program:

- *Session one from June 4 through July 8.
- *Session two from July 9 through August 12.

PRE-COLLEGE COURSES

OSHKOSH - Applications are now being accepted for a University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh summer program designed to give academically promising minority students a head start toward college.

The program emphasizes the use of microcomputers for computer-assisted instruction in math and English, and computer programming.

The first Pre-College Computer-Assisted Courses (PreCCC) program, scheduled from June 11 through July 1, is for students who will enter grades 8 through 10 next fall. The second session, from July 9 through July 27, will be for students entering grades 11 and 12 next fall.

Students must have a "B" average in math or English, although exceptions will be made if test scores indicate academic ability or if there is a strong letter of support from a teacher or counselor.

Minority students who are Wisconsin residents are eligible to apply for the need-based scholarship program funded by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI). The DPI scholarship will cover the $525 PreCCC program cost.

Applications will be accepted through May 1. Early application is recommended.

For more information, contact the PreCCC, Program, Room 131, Dempsey Hall, University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, Oshkosh, WI, 54901-8602, or call (414) 424-3080.

ACT Testing now required

The ACT will be required of all new freshmen who are Wisconsin residents entering the UW System in the fall of 1989. SAT scores are not acceptable for this group of students. Institutions in the system have the option to accept SAT scores for NON-RESIDENTS or for freshman applicants who require special and unique exemptions. --provided by the Higher Education Location Program of the University of Wisconsin Extension.

Financial Aid: Two Loan Programs PLUS/SLS Loan Program

The PLUS/SLS (Supplemental Loans to Students) Program makes loans available to the parents of dependent students, and independent undergraduate, graduate or professional students. The maximum that may be borrowed is $4,000 annually, and $20,000 for the entire educational career.

For the PLUS/SLS loan, borrowers begin repayment within 60 days of the loans disbursement. The interest is a variable rate based on the one year T-bill + 3.75%, with a 11% cap. Currently the interest is at 10.45%. Generally a borrower is allowed at least five years, but no more than ten years for repayment.

GSL Program

The GSL (Guaranteed Student Loan) Program had undergone a name change. This type of a loan will now be called the Stafford Student Loan (SSL). The rate of interest is 8% for first time borrowers. Undergraduates may borrow up to $2,265 per year for the first two years, $4,000 per year for the remaining two-three years, with a $7,250 maximum for all undergraduate years.

Repayment begins on the SSL six months after the student ceases to be half-time or more. While this deferred payment is an attractive aspect of this program, students are urged to be aware of the burden placed in future income by the accumulation of a large debt.

Summer Research Program for Minorities and Women(SRP)

The objective of the SRP is to provide an opportunity for outstanding minorities and women to work for a summer within the research environment of AT&T Bell Laboratories. The program is open to students who have completed 3 years of education in computer science or engineering. The program also provides an AT&T Bell Laboratories scientist as a mentor. For additional information call 201-949-3728.

AT&T Research & Development Scholarships and Summer Programs

Engineering Scholarship Program
 The ESP is designed to encourage selected outstanding minorities and women to pursue a BS degree in computer science or the engineering disciplines. ESP provides full tuition, textbook allowance, fees, room and board, a challenging summer job each year at AT&T, and an appropriate mentor. Applications and information: call 201-949-4301.

Graduate Research Program for Women (GRPW)

GRPW is designed to identify and develop scientific and engineering research ability in women and to increase the representation of women in these fields. The program provides support for outstanding students pursuing fulltime doctoral studies in their discipline. The program consists of two types of awards: fellowships and grants. The fellowship provides an annual living stipend of $11,100, full tuition and fees, textbook allowance, summer employment and an AT&T Bell Laboratories scientist as a mentor. The grant provides $1,500 annually to be used by the recipient the following year in any way that benefits her professional development. Grant recipients are also eligible for summer employment and are assigned an AT&T Bell Laboratories scientist as a mentor.

For additional information, call 201-949-2943.

Offers post-secondary educational grants to Oneida Tribal Members attending accredited courses of college study. Awards based on demonstrated financial need. Preferred application deadline date of April 1, yearly.

AVT/DE

Stands for "Adult Vocational Training" and "Direct Employment" Assistance. Also known as the Employment Assistance Program. This program offers many of the same opportunities as the above Higher Education Program for Oneida Tribal Members. The difference being this programs requirement to serve only full-time technical school students. Preferred application deadline date of April 1, yearly.

WEJT

"Work Experience Job Training" Program. The Tribe's newest contract program will begin to receive clients in February 1989. Eligible participants are drawn from AFDC recipients, only as identified by Tribal or Brown County Income Maintenance Units. Services are similar to the JTPA Program offerings, indicated above, with special sensitivity toward AFDC client needs of transportation and child care. Program goal: Family economic self-sufficiency.

This is a partial list of services available through existing contract programs; every program has guidelines about repeat and or maximum duration of services. Please call for details.

The purpose of this article is to summarize services and to let you know the Education and Job Training Offices are at work for you. Watch for future articles.

Need A Job? Looking For A Job to Fill?

Call Oneida Tribal Job-Service!

The Oneida Tribe is proud to announce the opening of a Job-Service office in the Norbert Hill Center. Located on the second floor, Room 1324, of the main wing. The office is managed by Rosa Hill Coenen, Placement Specialist. Rosa can be reached at 869-2214, Ext. 319, Mondays thru Thursdays.

Job-Service is here to serve employers in recruiting labor as well as to match qualified applicants with job openings by using a computerized automated matching system. The Job-Service office will operate in cooperation with Oneida Tribal Human Resource Department.

This is the first venture of its kind in the nation where a cooperative agreement has been implemented with a tribe.

Please feel free to stop in and see what Job-Service can offer you or a friend. The door is open from 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday thru Thursday.

Big-league effort brings major show to Neville Museum

Thanks to community teamwork, dinosaurs are the talk of the town beginning today at the Neville Public Museum.

Dinosaurs Revisited, one of the museum's biggest shows, features three life-like, animated replicas of huge creatures that roamed millions of years ago.

The dinosaur show has played to big crowds in other cities. Museum officials say it could draw more than 200,000 people before it concludes April 30.

While the exhibit promises to be exhilarating, one of its best features is that the public can see it for free.

Admission fees were chared in other cities.

But a variety of local backers donated thousands of dollars to help museum officials and volunteers bring the show here.

Sparking the effort were leaders of the Oneida Indian Tribe. The tribe donated funds and helped raise money. An exhibit on the tribe's Turtle Clan also will be shown.

From all indications, Dinosaurs Revisited is a major league attraction. The community effort that brought it here also was big league.

WE APOLOGIZE!

Dear Readers,

The Kalihwisaks is compiled by the joint efforts of the Oneida Communications staff and the Oneida Printing Enterprise staff.

As everyone knows, from time to time departments have staff who for various reasons must take emergency leave. Unfortunately, this past month both Communications and Printing have experienced an unusual amount of medical emergencies in both departments at the same time.

As a result we were caught unprepared to produce these issues with the shortage of time and staff. The Communications Department assumes full responsibility for inadvertently omitting articles and notices that were submitted for publication and not printed. The omissions and typographical errors were entirely unintentional. We hope to correct these mistakes in this issue.

We extend our sincere apologies to everyone who was affected by the omissions and errors.

And finally, we THANK those who were constructive and understanding, and took the time to call personally or visit the office to clear up the misunderstandings.

We invite you to stop in or call with any concerns regarding the Kalihwisaks.

Sincerely,

Bobbi Webster, Communications Director

LOCAL ARTIST AWARDED APPRENTICESHIP GRANT

Mary Lee LeMieux has been awarded a folk arts apprenticeship grant from the *Wisconsin Arts Board. Mary has agreed to create an art project focusing "cornhusk dolls the Oneida Traditional style."

This project involves teaching a young person the ancient craft of cornhusk doll making to continue this aspect of Oneida culture lest it becomes a forgotten art.

Many cultures today make cornhusk dolls, but they have deviated from this original, Native American art by contemporary changes such as non-Indian clothing and faces on their dolls.

Mary hopes to build a small exhibit of photos, doll samples and research while showing her apprentice the old-style way of doll creation, and the reason our Indian dolls have no faces.

*The Wisconsin Arts Board grants must be given credit along with the National Endowment for the Arts in any brochures, news releases or any other printed materials such as Kalihwisaks.

ONEIDA SINGERS

The Oneida Singers would like to extend our sincere sympathy to the many families who have recently lost loved ones. This winter the Creator has called many of our beloved Oneida people home. It is during these many funerals that we have been approached by the families as how to pay us for our time. We expect no pay from the families, we do it because we love to sing and show our respect for our people who have passed on. If families wish to make a contribution for the singers, please feel free to make that donation to the church or religious organization of your choice. We do not charge nor do we expect money for singing at funerals and wakes.

Once again we extend our sympathy to the Oneida Community as we have all been affected by these losses, and we thank you for the donations we have received.

Mary Edna Greendeer

CONGRATULATIONS ANNA JOHN NURSING HOME EMPLOYEES ON A JOB WELL DONE!

These are the people who work at the Anna John Nursing Home. They care for our elderly as a team 365 days a year, 24 hours a day. Each of these persons provide not only a service, but a committment to quality care for our elderly.

Each year we are scrutinized by the state against over 500 state/federal codes and regulations. We've recently just finished with one of these surveys and received a A±.

I wish to thank each of these persons on behalf of the Anna John Home Administration, Commission Board and the Oneida Tribe of Indians.

Foot Care For Diabetics

If you have Diabetes, you are at risk for foot problems, especially if:

- you are over 40
- smoke
- have had Diabetes for over 10 years
- have had other foot problems before
- have a history of skin ulcers.

General rules for good foot care:

1. Keep your feet clean.
2. Avoid injuries to feet by wearing fitting shoes and socks, preferably leather.
3. Do not smoke.
4. Inspect your feet every day in good light.
5. Wash feet daily, but DO NOT soak.
6. Keep appointments with your Doctor or Nurse.
7. Have your doctor inspect your feet at each office visit.
8. Get regular exercise to improve your circulation.
9. Have your toe nails cut by a trained health care.

OPTICAL NEWS SEEING IS BELIEVING!

In January the Optical Dept. adopted a payment policy with regard to the ordering and purchasing of glasses. The new policy is as follows:

Patients are required to pay 50% of the estimated cost of their glasses at the time the glasses are ordered. The balance is due at the time of delivery.

 This 50% pre-payment is NOT refundable.

There was a need to institute this policy, due to an increase in the number of glasses ordered but not picked up. Requiring 50% pre-payment on the cost will ensure pickup and also promote the use for healthy eyesight.

This policy applies only to those patients who do not have optical insurance available to cover the costs involved.

Optical News - Con't

* For those patients with a Mecal Assistant card: Medical Assistant covers a limited variety of frames. Should you choose a frame not covered by the Medical Assistance Program, the lenses will not be paid by Medical Assistance either. Therefore, you will be responsible for the full cost of the glasses and will be subject to the above Optical policy of 50% due when you order.

age are injured, the resulting muscle spasms can mimic the pain of a heart attack, because these muscles are located close to the nerves of the heart. If you press on the spot where your chest pain seems to originate and find that is it tender, it may be because of a pulled muscle.

ANXIETY:

Tension and generalized anxiety is often the result of excess stress - can cause pain that feels similar to heart pain. The discomfort may be accompanied by shortness of breath, dizziness, hyperventilation and heart palpitations.

There are several things you may try to do to reduce anxiety:

1. Take slow deep breaths;
2. Sit or lie down and relax; and
3. If possible, remove self from stressful factors.

If you have any questions, call your doctor. If symptoms reoccur seek medical attention.

IF COMING INTO THE CLINIC WITH CHEST PAINS, NOTIFY THE RECEPTIONIST THAT YOU ARE HAVING CHEST PAINS.

Thank you.

HEALTH PROMOTION NEWS

New Year's Health
"More or Less"

As we enter another year it might be wise to stop and think how we become more or less healthy. It is important that each individual makes a resolution to be more responsible for their own health status. Most of the diseases that kill us are self-imposed by our lifestyle choices. The old adage "Moderation in all things" is ignored when we eat too much, drink too much, smoke too much, and abuse our bodies in numerous other ways. To be healthier we should have less fats and cholesterol in our diets, drink less than two drinks per day or abstain, and take in less calories than we burn is want to gradually lose excess weight. We could use less stress, less medication to combat that stress, and less unsafe driving practices (drinking and driving or not wearing seatbelts). As a group most of us want more. We probably should have more exercise; climbing stairs (instead of taking the elevator), walking, jogging or some type of aerobic activity for 20-40 minutes three or four times a week. This would give us more HDL (good cholesterol) which is helpful in reducing build-up in arteries. In our diets we could use more complex carbohydrates (fresh fruits and vegetables) and more self-restraint as to the number of calories we feed ourselves.

As a New Year's gift lets give ourselves more positive health habits which will make life more enjoyable. We could top off the New Year by giving those we meet and work with more smiles, and a positive pat on the back!

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

To Mom and Dad, Harold and Beatrice King on their 40th Wedding Anniversary. Harold and Beatrice were married February 26, 1949 at the Holy Apostles Church, Oneida, Wisconsin.

"It takes two special people,
To be parents of mine.
The little things go unnoticed,
And you deserve so much more of my time.

So many times I have failed you,
And I know I'm hard to understand.
But I thank God for having parents like you,
Always ready to lend a hand.

You both are very special to me,
Though I rarely reveal it.
I respect and love you very much,
Though too often I conceal it.

I'm sorry if I hurt you,
By things I do and say.
Because you're the ones I look up to,
Though I'm stubborn in having my own way.

God Bless you today and always,
Because for me there could be no other.
That could take the place of,
My beloved Father and Mother.

With Love

Clinic News

CHEST PAINS:

Is the pain in your chest trapped gas or heartburn? The results of anxiety or an infection? Are you having a muscle spasm or a heart attack?

HEART ATTACK:

An attack occurs when a portion of the heart muscle dies from lack of adequate blood flow. The classic symptom is a crushing, squeezing sensation that typically begins in the center of the chest and radiates to the left side of the torso and down the left arm. It may also extend upward to the neck and jaw, down the right arm as well as the left, and to either shoulder.

If you suspect that your chest pains are related to heart problem, it is vital that you seek medical attention immediately!

ANGINA:

When a person is especially active or excited, extra demands are placed on the heart. Brief episodes of heart pain - angina - can occur when the amount of blood going to the heart is not sufficient to meet these additional demands. Most people's arteries respond to increase physical activity or emotional stimulation by expanding to allow more blood to flow to the heart. But for those with angina, this mechanism does not work well, usually because the arteries are too clogged with fatty deposits of plaque to allow the blood vessels to expand properly. Therefore, when the blood supply is taxed the heart received an inadequate amount of blood for its needs. This typically causes a heavy constricting pain in the center of the chest that may spread to the throat, back, and arms. Angina tends to be less severe and to subside after a few minutes, whereas a heart attack pain usually lasts for several hours.

If an angina attack lasts longer or is more severe than usual, don't ignore the problem, consult your doctor at once.

REFLUX (Heartburn):

Heartburn causes a burning sensation in the chest that can be mistaken for chest pain. Reflux occurs when gastric acids from the stomach back up to the esophagus. Heartburn pain may last from several minutes to several hours. Spicy, acidic and fatty foods contribute to heartburn, as do tomato products; coffee, tea and cola drinks; citrus fruits and juices; alcoholic beverages; chocolate, peppermint and spearmint.

There are several steps to take to relieve the discomfort of heartburn.

1. Eat several small meals throughout the day, instead of 2-3 large meals.
2. Use an over-the-counter antacid.
3. Try not to lie down for several hours after eating.
4. Raise your head above chest area when lying down.
5. Stay away from foods that tend to aggravate/cause your heartburn.

GAS PAIN:

Another common digestive problem that can masquerade, as symptom of heart disease, is gassiness. When excess gas collects on the left side of the intestine, it can cause sudden, sharp pains in the upper left shoulder; some people also have trouble catching their breath during an attack. Gas pains typically appear after a person has swallowed a lot of air - by talking while eating, chewing with their mouth opened or eating too fast. Certain foods also can contribute to gassiness: high fiber grains, vegetables such as broccoli, brussels sprouts, cabbage, beans and onions; fruit such as apples, bananas, pears and peaches as well as citrus fruits; and carbonated beverages including beer and soda.

MUSCLE INJURY:

It can occur when muscle fibers are damaged or torn from excessive stretching or overuse - when lifting a heavy object for example, or from an external blow. When muscles connected to the rib

Did You Receive An Insurance Check?

On September 1, 1988, the Pharmacy began an on-line computer system for recording the prescriptions you receive, and which also enables us to bill your insurance in a more direct and efficient manner.

Since September, several prescription payments have not reached our office, and through many, many phone calls to the various insurance carriers, we find that many of them are making payment directly to you, the patient; because the insurance has assumed that you have already paid for the prescriptions when you picked them up. As you have NOT paid for the prescriptions, the check you have received from your insurance carrier should be sent to the Oneida Health Center to cover the cost of the prescriptions you have received.

You will be billed for the amount(s) you have received; the insurance reimbursements are the sources that allow us to continue providing services to you and other community members.

If you have any questions regarding a check that you recently received from your insurance, please call the Billing Office or stop in so that we can help you determine where the payment belongs.

Thank you,

Dental News Chew Cavities Away

Hopefully you don't believe everything you hear in television advertisements. A little skepticism is a good thing, especially relating to the claims made in dental products advertisements.

There is one claim, however, that is being proven true by scientific research. In studies done by a professor at the University of Michigan, chewing gum that is sweetened with Xylitol was shown to help prevent cavities. In the study, children who chewed Xylitol - sweetened gum

GOOD NEWS

Success In The Bowling Game

Milwaukee native Roberta Shelton is enjoying life in the fast lane. The only difference is that Roberta's lane is one of those in a bowling alley.

Since joining the NBAC in September, 1988, she has sanctioned highs of 277 and 653. Roberta was recently the lady high qualifier in a tournament. "It's about time I made it to top lady qualifier," she stated.

Roberta has been bowling for about 15 to 20 years and bowls two leagues at Canoga Park Bowl and two leagues at El Dorado Bowl. Both leagues are in California.

"I like bowling with the NBAC because the competition is good and the women have an equal chance to win," said Roberta. "The people are friendly too, which makes bowling more pleasurable."

Roberta also mentioned how well the club is run and that the owners and directors were so helpful. She also would like to thank her brother Wayne, who usually tells her what she's doing wrong, and if she listens it usually helps.

Roberta's other interests include guitar, pool, darts and watching people, not necessarily in that order.

Roberta King Shelton is the daughter of Raymond and Edna House King. The proud parents moved from Milwaukee to California in 1949. Roberta recently moved from Milwaukee back to California where she is enjoying her successful bowling career.

Roberta's great-grandmother is Ruth Baird of Oneida, Wisconsin.

Studying Hard

Nick Toman is an accounting major at Whitewater State. He would like to be a CPA.

In the fall semester Nick's GPA was nearly a 4.0. His cumulative GPA is 3.59. He's been on the Dean's List all three semesters at Whitewater. Currently Nick is a second semester sophomore.

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK NICK!

The funeral services were held in Oneida.

In Loving Memory Of

our Mother
Mrs. Mary Hill
who died 8 years ago today
February 21, 1981

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone.
For parts of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
God has you in his keeping,
We have you in our hearts.

Sadly missed by her children, James, Florence,
Isabel, Veronica and Sarah.

THANK YOU

The family of Lillian Radant wishes to thank our Oneida Community friends for their kindness and loving support during the time of the recent loss of our mother.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day,
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.
