ONEIDA ANNUITIES

by

William Skenandore

47th - "Acting in pursuance of the treaty and of the assumed right of forfeiture the Government surveyed, and made a part of the public domain, the lands at Green Bay ceded by the claimants and sold or otherwise disposed of and conveyed the same and received the consideration therefore, except a reservation of about 65,000 acres to the Oneidas."

Press Gazette Report:

48th - The Green Bay Press Gazette of last December 8, reported in part as quoted here, "Before reading the proposed legislation, Riley told the group that the proposed action was not one dreamed up by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, but that the Bureau had been given a directive by Congress to eliminate what Congress terms the Indian Problem."

Jones v. Meehan 175 U.S. 1:

49th - At the turn of the century, the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Jones vs. Meehan of 175 U.S. 1; held in substance: When an Indian tribe in a treaty with the U.S., acquires a title in fee simple to a tract of land they became owners of the land and were no longer occupying the lands merely as tenants, with the fee or ownership of the land to be vested in the Federal Government. And the terms of the treaty could not be abrogated or altered by a subsequent Act of Congress. Again in 1935, the same language was used by the Supreme Court of the U.S. in the case of the U.S. vs. Creek Nation 295 U.S. 103.

50th - Yet, ever since the Department of the Interior began to issue the fee simple patents to the allotments of the Oneida Indians on the Oneida Reservation near Green Bay, Wisconsin, the Indian Bureau had asserted with reference to them as follows: As mandatory, pursuant to the provisions of the General Allotment Act of 1887 and its subsequent amendments. That the conferring of U.S. citizenship on the Oneida Indians and at the issuance of the fee simple patents to their allotments, terminated the relation of guardian and ward between the U.S. and the said Oneida Indians. At which time the allottees and their allotments became full fledged subjects to the criminal and civil laws of the State of Wisconsin.

51st - Again and again, briefly stated in 1926, with reference to the General Allotment Act of 1887 and its subsequent amendments; The U.S. District Court out in South Dakota in the case of the U.S. v. Dewey County, S.D. 14 F. (2nd) 784, held as follows: "From their very weakness and helplessness so largely due to the course of dealings of the federal government with them and the treaties in which it has been promised, there arises the duty of protection and citizenship and the issuance of the fee simple patents to the Cheyenne River Band of Sioux Indians in South Dakota either before or after the expiration of the so-called 25 years trust period as imposed by the General Allotment Act of 1887 and its subsequent amendments. Does it not terminate the relation of guardian and ward between the Federal Government and the said Indians and it is not for any Court or State to say when the emancipation of the Indians takes place. And the United States was given the right to maintain the suit for the said Indians to recover from Dewey County all the personal property taxes the County had collected from the said Indians on record with interest. Upon appeal by Dewey County, the Eighth United States Circuit Court of Appeals affirmed the decision of the District Court, see 26 F (2nd) 434. And upon a further appeal by Dewey County, it was again affirmed by the Supreme Court of the U.S. - see 278 U.S. 649.

1934:

52nd - Due to the Indian Bureau's lawlessness in the administration of the affairs of the Wisconsin Oneida Indians, thus by 1934, the said Oneida Indians had become about 90 per cent landless and homeless. Because the Bureau had instigated the operations of the Wisconsin tax and mortgage foreclosure laws against the vested inalienable rights of the said Oneida Indians to their Reservation near Green Bay, Wisconsin. Therefore, as a sub. the Indian Bureau under the Wheeler-Howard, Indian Re-organization Act of June 18, 1934, (48 Stat. 984), had the Government repurchase their losses to the extent of 1,200 acres for the poverty stricken Oneida Indians.

53rd - But when the Indian Bureau needed votes to have the Wheeler-Howard, Indian Reorganization Act of 1934 apply to the Wisconsin Oneida Indians, then it was an altogether different story. As then the absentee ballots that were prepared and sent out by the Indian Bureau officials recites as quoted here: "I, the undersigned a member of the Oneida Tribe am temporarily living in (city)_____, (county)_____, (state)_____, but I regard the Oneida Reservation as my permanent home and legal residence."

NEWS FROM THE ONEIDA TRUST COMMITTEE

Re: New York Emigrant Claims Award

The following should give you a little history regarding our Emigrant Claim monies.

The Trust Committee letter of July 23, 1975, to Mr. Bernard Granum of the BIA Area Office, is our latest communique. It will be printed near the end of this article.

Hopefully, it won't be long before the Bureau of Indian Affairs will be ready to pay the first judgment monies to enrolled members of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin falling within the age group 51 and over.

A proposed trust fund agreement has been submitted to the BIA for their approval. This plan must be submitted to congress. If congress does not block the proposed plan, it will then go into effect.

A target date of June 30th, had previously been set. This deadline is now over. As it now stands, the paperwork here is completed. Additional delays in Washington now indicate that final action may not come until late summer.

Proceeds of the award are now invested and drawing interest for each and every day there is a delay in the issuance of these funds.

Following is a copy of a letter from Morris Thompson, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington, D.C., to Stanley Webster, Chairman of the Oneida Trust Committee:

June 17, 1975

Dear Mr. Webster:

Your letter of June 6 and draft of a proposed trust agreement include elements which will need clarification.

The immediate effort being the initial distribution made to those enrolled members of the Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wisconsin falling within the age group 51 and over by June 30, we shall arrange through the Minneapolis Area Director for such distribution. The Area Director will coordinate the documentation and action necessary to provide for the June 30 distribution under his delegated authority.

The proposed trust agreement will be reviewed in detail and the clarifications called for will be submitted through the Area Director. You are assured that every effort will be made to carry out the wishes of the Tribe as well as the provisions of the Act of September 27, 1967, 81 Stat. 229, which provides for the apportionment and disposition of the funds appropriated to pay a judgment in favor of the Emigrant New York Indians in Indian Claims Commission Docket No. 75, and the interest thereon.

The funds were apportioned to the Oneida, Stockbridge-Munsee, and the Brotherton Indians, as of June 11, 1974. The portion belonging to the Oneida Tribe is maintained as a U.S. Treasury Trust Fund and was transferred and accounted for under the following symbols and titles:

14X7366 Proceeds of Awards of Indian Claims Commission, Oneida Tribe of Indians of Wis. Docket No. 75

$914,290.92

14X7866 Interest and Accruals on Interest, on the above fund

~~$400,060.06~~
$1,314,350.98

The $1,314,350.98, plus investment income, or $1,434,680.95, is currently invested with the Chase Manhattan Bank, New York, at 5.329 percent interest per annum. The investment will mature on June 19, 1975, when the earnings in this current investment, or $6,276.73, shall be added, bringing the fund total to $1,440,957.68 as of that date.

We shall make the proposed trust agreement the subject of subsequent correspondence.

Sincerely yours,

s/ Morris Thompson
Commissioner of Indian Affairs

Following is the copy of our letter of July 23, 1975, to Mr. Bernard Granum, Acting Area Director, Minneapolis Area Office:

Dear Mr. Granum:

In response to your letter of July 17, 1975 in regard to Claim Docket No. 75.

Based on resolutions adopted by the General Tribal Council (copies enclosed) the Trust Committee requests the Bureau of Indian Affairs to make the initial payment of $176.05 to all eligible members who are 51 years of age and over as of August 1, 1975 to be paid by July 31, 1975.

It is also requested that the annual payment be in January of each succeeding year.

It is also requested at this time that the unpaid balance of interest be re-invested until January of 1976 at which time the Trust Committee will advise the Area Office of the next payment date and the amount of interest to be paid on each per capita share.

Sincerely,
Trust Committee Chairman, Stanley Webster
Trust Committee Secretary, Amelia Cornelius

REMEMBER TO VOTE ON SATURDAY,

JULY 26, 1975

POLLS OPEN 9 AM - 7 PM

TRIBAL BUILDING

ON THE ROAD
TO NEW YORK AND CANADA

Monday, July 7th at 7:00 AM:

A busload of 38 Oneida people left from the Civic Center on a New York - Canada trip. We went through Chicago and got a glimpse of the tallest Sears Roebuck Building in the world, which is 114 stories high (think how one would feel if the elevator stuck between floors, as one approached the 100th floor).

1:45 PM: We stopped for lunch at Hornes Restaurant in Michigan, then on to Detroit, Michigan, and arrived at the City Motel at 6:15 PM, Michigan time, where advance reservations had been made.

Tuesday, July 8th at 7:05 AM:

Here we saw the beautiful sunrise as we left the City Motel. We crossed the Ambassador Bridge into Canada and on to Windsor where we stopped for breakfast.

Our next stop was at Kingston for lunch. We then went through Hamilton, Canada, and in a few minutes we crossed the "Peace Bridge" into New York. (The Custom's Clerk at the bridge was a lady and kidded with us by saying, "One can't find a better bunch of people and those on our bus are the real Americans")

2:10 PM: We passed Buffalo, New York. At Barretville we stopped for lunch then pulled out for Syracuse.

6:15 PM: We came to a small village called Chittenago where we checked in at the Lodge Motel, where we spent the next two nights. Thirty of us stayed here and eight people checked in up the road at the Midway Motel. We had dinner at Sergio's Restaurant. Later we sang a few Indian songs which entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bracy, operators of the motel.

Wednesday, July 9th at 8:40 AM:

The bus left for Syracuse Oneida Reservation where we had been invited to have breakfast (it's about 13 miles there). At this reserve, we were met by Chief Jake Thompson, and made welcome.

One of our breakfast hostesses was Macie Schenandore.

Now one of the high lights of this trip was to visit the "Oneida Sacred Stone," which about one year ago was moved to this new location from the Forrest Hill Cemetery in Utica, New York where it had been preserved for many years. This reservation is land purchased by the government, and in part has been taken back from the white people who lived there as squatters. It is only about eight years ago, and the houses are mainly mobile homes.

At 11:00 AM, a short ceremony was performed at the Sacred Stone by one of the chiefs and the interpreter, Mose Webster. However, the chief spoke in the Onandaga language and the interpreter was so soft-spoken that not many of us understood it. (Sorry about that)

After a delicious dinner here, consisting of corn soup, fried bread, baked beans, salads, ham, chicken, radishes and coleslaw, with sassafras and kool-aid to drink, we were fed full to capacity.

At about 1:30 PM, a program was put on for us by the local Oneida young people by singing, drumming, and Indian dancing.

Our Wisconsin Oneidas were then asked to sing for them, which we did. After the program we went on a bus tour with Macie Schenandore as M.C. over this Oneida territory. The first stop was the Oneida Castle Village near Sherill. Here is where the Oneida Silver Manufacturing Company is located. Some of our people bought souvenirs.

We went on and visited an 87 year old lady, Evelyn George Johnson, who is the oldest Indian lady living here. We also met an Elsie Hon Yost who spoke to us in the Oneida Indian language.

5:15 PM: "Lo and behold!! Our bus ran out of gas. Fortunately our guide and program promoter were driving behind us - so he drove back to a filling station and got gas. Our very good natured and congenial driver, Bernie Huettl, took a lot of ribbing but no one got excited and soon we were on our way again.

Our next stop on this tour was a place where grain pits were seen where the Indians used to get all their water years ago. These pits are about three or four feet deep and four feet in diameter. This place was known as "Nichol's Pond."

We then came back to the reservation and were again served something to eat.

The hospitality which was extended to us by our blood brothers, the New York Oneidas, is something we will always remember and hope they can come to Wisconsin, so we can show them the same welcome and hospitality.

This concludes three days of our six day tour and will be continued in the next issue of this paper.

Six medical students of Indian blood were in attendance from the Universities of North Dakota, Oklahoma, Georgetown and Stanford and Harvard Universities.

Members of this organization were invited to spend the evening with us last Thursday. Once again we were able to show our hospitality. We did not have much advance notice, but it didn't take us long to organize a program for the evening, and one which our guests will long remember.

A traditional meal of corn soup and bread was served. Dick Christjohn made a presentation on artifacts; the Oneida Dancers performed several numbers and the Oneida Singers rounded out the evening's activities.
